

Laboratory Information System (LIS) Consulting CASE STUDY

Opportunity for Improvement

A large 97+, non-standard, multi-region health system struggled with complexity, technology resources, and lab analytics. Accumen was selected as their trusted partner, reporting directly to the health system's CIO.

Approach

Accumen assessed and aided in the selection process of a single vendor, with an end goal of decreasing laboratory complexity, improved patient care, and provider satisfaction.

Outcome

- Created an overall IT project team structure
- Performed a risk and resources assessment
- Prepared a site/market (profile) readiness matrix

Accumen continues to execute and support this large 3-year, multi-phase project with a team of 12+ lab experts.
